Go, But Come Again

Another big class graduates! The largest ever, so the records say. To you who are going away from North Central this June, it is the one class of all—the most important. That's not because of its size, but because each of you, your joys and successes, are a part of it. It is your class.

But now the last chapter is read, the last test written, the book is closed. But what you take with you in personal power, social understanding, friendships formed, new outlooks on life gained here in the past four years will bind you to us, we hope, for all your lives.

Go then, with your dipomas. But keep North Central and the Red and Black high in your esteem, and return to us early and often.

Sincerely yours,

F. G. Kennedy

Editorials

OUR ALMA MATER

In June, three hundred fifty-nine of us will reach the parting of the ways, some to meet often, some never to meet again. Regardless of WHAT happens, just what part in our lives will North Central have played?

Let us consider the curricular work first. Certainly all the time we have spent in classes has not been in vain! Our faculty has done its utmost to make lessons interesting and beneficial to us. Each of us has obtained a broad knowledge of general subjects and has specialized in some given field. If we do not attend some college or business or trade school, this will be all the supervised education we will have. If we do continue our schooling, our North Central work will be a solid foundation on which to base further learning.

Student government, sports, clubs—all of these will help us to take a definite part in life after school. These activities have developed, more or less, good citizenship, leadership, cooperation, friendliness—all of which help to lead to happiness and success; for they give us practice and experience in order that we may enter society well prepared.

North Central is a friendly school, it has been a place in which to make lasting friendships. Everyone makes some friends, but through special programs and fetes, we have been encouraged to make wider contacts. In fact, all of us are friends: we are friends even of those fellow students whose names we do not know.

North Central has given us an academic education, a social training education and most important of all, true, everlasting frieudships.

TO THE FUTURE

For the past four years, we of the graduating class have worked and played together. After graduation many of us will never need again, each one going his own way. What will the next four years bring? Some of us will be graduated from college or will be well along toward the completion of our courses. Some will have a good start on a career or will have found places in the business world. A few will have accomplished nothing.

Each individual is now faced with the decision as to which path he is to follow.

Perhaps the most desirable pursuit is that of furthering our education at a college or a university. Those who are fortunate enough to attend college and who attend with a will to learn—not just for the social life—will build for themselves a firm foundation for future life.

Those of us who seek employment will get an earlier start in husiness. If we are ever alert and willing to continue our self-education, much will undoubtedly be gained.

Before setting out on any course, however, we should carefully analyze our potential abilities—find out just what we would do best and enjoy doing the most. When this decision is reached, we should set the mark we wish to attain; then go after it whole-heartedly, never ceasing until the ulfimate goal is reached.

A COMPARATIVE TERM

Success may be defined as the achievement of one's desires.

From this statement may be drawn the corrollary that one, by setting his own goals, is himself responsible for whatever measure of success obtained. An individual, weaker from the standpoint of the various talents, may therefore gain success by merely making his desires more humble.

Doing this is not dishonorable or cowardly. The coward is the person of great abilities who does not have proportionately great ambitions. The world has seen fit to bestow upon him superior powers that he may exercise these powers for bettering primarily, himself, and secondarily, humanity. Energy, the desire to be active, arises from within one's self and is not a haphazardly bestowed trait.

Success is a flexible term whose limit is infinity and whose coefficients are industry and a thorough knowledge of one's natural and induced abilities.

LEISURE, A PROBLEM

Leisure is not so much a chance to do nothing as it is a chance to do something. The carlier definitions adjudged leisure a time to be devoted to the lighter and more pleasant tasks.

The ancient Greeks built their civilization to its heights by intelligent use of leisure. Contrastingly, the downfall of the Roman Empire

To fellow Warriors the Class of June '37 leaves divers heritages.

To ye poor mortals who are still left to suffer along for another year or more, the graduating seniors leave the following:

Bob Chatterton leaves to all inspiring young Romeos his ability to make the feminine hearts flutter.

Hubert Boyd leaves his grade-school nickname, "Sonny," to anyone else who likes it better than he does.

Olive Bidne unselfishly leaves her red hair without a temper to Pat Boyle.

Paul Bergquist wills his radio technique to the surviving members of the Rho Kappa.

Donne Codd says that the use of her big, round eyes may go to Betty Neilans who uses hers capably also.

Leo Bailly leaves his ability to aggravate Miss Mitchell to the incoming senior A psychologists.

Jean Cleave wills her lovely voice to all uprising soprano soloists—but, on second thought, maybe you'd better take it with you, Jean; the rest will have to get along by themselves.

Ward Barnes leaves his "unaccustomed as I am to public speaking" modesty to the next class orator.

Bev Braden leaves his ability to appreciate his girl friends to Tommy Kroetch.

Jack Byers gladly leaves his suitease full of traffic tickets to Vice Principal Walter C. Hawes.

Jeanne Cassels and Johnny Devlin sorrow-fully and woefully leave Carol.

Wright Dearborn leaves his drag with the faculty and the office force to Orville (Bus) Green—and does he need it!

Ray Crisp leaves Pat—but not for very long. Lewis DeVoe and Mary DeVoe leave North Central without any more boy and girl twins. Dorothy Field leaves her interest in Washington State eadets to the faculty.

Ellen Freed wills "that tennis form" to Jane Snure.

And to Dorothy Tesch goes Audrene Gregory's charming, slow drawl.

Evelyn Eastman bequeaths her cool aloofness to Jerry Rhea.

Ed Fetz leaves, after much consideration, his piano. (He found out he couldn't take it with him.)

John Harvey says he will gladly leave his manly physique to the descrying person, Donald Strain.

Van Johnston reminiseingly leaves his ability to go places without any money to Jack Scott.

Clyde Kuckenbeker wills his ealm, slow, cool-headed indifference to Glen Pitcher.

Bob Kane leaves his "corny" sax playing to Chuck Rice and his band.

Marianne Luenow leaves her interest in L. C. to all the Tigers.

Ella Ruth McLellan leaves her horses to Pat Petersen.

Doug Morrison leaves his technique in securing the "girl friends' families' cars" to George Cape.

Elza Cooper wills all of his extra library conduct eards to George Petsch.

Helen McLendon leaves her ability to "filibuster" to the debate class.

Candidates Vie in City Election

Celebrity Dinner Candid Camera Is Gigantic Success

Ten home towners who made attended the annual chamber of commerce banquet two nights ago. Toastmaster was Milton DeArmand, president of the local chamber.

Honored guests were: Ella Ruth McLellan, head jockey at Santa Anita, who got her start raising horses by the dozen for the one horse village at Seven Mile; Broadway stage actress, Marian Rice, who once played the part of a cahbage in the Very Little Theater play, "Cab-bages and Kings." Ray Crisp, president and founder of Radio network PAT; Will R. Hol-land, poet and philosopher, author of "Spring Sprang in the Spring" for which he won the Foolitzer prize at some time or another; Marjorie Sanders, third secretary to the fifth secretary to the assistant secretary of the navy; and Angus 'Pugilist' Snedden, leading challenger for the hefty weight title.

At the conclusion of the banquet those three Jean sisters, Cassels, Travis and Cleave sang, "Without Rhyme nor Reason" lyries and music by Ed B.

Carson Continues Disney Cartoons

Los Angeles: Because of the recent retirement of Walt Disney, Gale Carson will direct the cartooning of Donald Duck. The Calkins boys, Lowell and Lloyd, will do Mickey and Minnie Mouse with Bill Carter drawing Silly Symphonies.

Reveals:

Ray Bell and Marjorie Eveland, winning the Bingville dancing contest.

Schoolhouse Receives Fresh Shipment of Pedagogues

Consolidated schoolhouse received a shipment of "bran new" school marms early this morning, it was learned from Principal E. Van Liew.

The principal has been slightly overworked lately hecause of a shortage of other teachers. She has had to teach everything from pig latin, archeology to flute playing and besides physical education, keeping all school records and accounts.

New educators sent from County institution are: The Misses V. Wilson, D. Lambert, M. L. Reynolds, M. Whitmore, K. Travis, M. Jones, D. Berger and C. Hurtubise.

men teachers, Cliff Slatky, Clyde Kuckenheker and with the shipment.

Accompanying the group the league, has secured were two efficient secretaries. Evelyn Sherwin and Olive Hendrickson.

'Mud Throwing' Prevails As Contest for Mayor Goes Into Home Stretch

Interest was added to the race for city mayor last midnight when it was announced that Wright Dearborn would oppose present mayor, Mike Smith, for office. The candidates, both on opposing sides since the time Mike beat Wright in a pie cating contest a long time ago, promise a close contest.

Running neck and neck for police commissioner arc Kenny Larson and Doug Morrison. The odds are 7% to 5% that neither candidate will receive two votes. But we prophesy a photographer's finish with Herb Steward holding the camera.

Proof at last that Bingville is taking up citified ideas! The two leading candidates for health commissioner wear skirts. In the race are Dr. Laura Jean Webster, Bingville's first girl doctor, of the Bring Em Ont Dead or Alive hospi-tal, and Miss Meg Kestler, who resigned her position as gym instructor at Consolidated school. Managing Miss Kestler's campaign is Mrs. Frank Crowe, nee Ellen Freed.

Debs Sponsor Junior

Chicago: In charge of the annnal Junior League hall are the Misses Margie Canvel, Irma Larson, Helen Latshaw, Bettie Elza Cooper, were also stuck in Cheathain and La Vonne Galusha. Miss Cauvel, president of world famous ballerina, Bettina Fritchina, to entertain the local elite.

Class History

A tale of students whose activities during the past four years at North Central have composed the record of the present groduating Class.

In September of 1933, a group of slightly scared freshmen entered North Central high school. Before many days had passed, most of them had become settled and were no longer uneasy in their new surroundings. During that first year, we "frosh" were, to all upperclassmen, objects fit only to be scorned. To our teachers we were just another crop of freshmen with the usual addiction to the expression, "I don't know," But secretly, in our own eyes we were potential seniors.

A year later our number was increased by the entrance of students from Havermale junior high school. Our group now totals 359, the largest class ever to be graduated not only from North Central but from any Spokane high school.

The sophomore and junior years passed with studying, athletics and other school activities occupying most of our time.

In the first half of the senior year, Van Johnston was voted president of the class. The other senior B officers were: Vice president, Mary DeVoe; secretary, Alice Hunt; treasurer, Beb Chatterton.

Jehn Devlin was elected president in the warmly contested senior A election. Other senior A class officers were: Marjorie Eveland, vice president; Alice Hunt, secretary; Bob Chatterton, treasurer. The position of class orator was ably filled by Ward Barnes. Stan Stevens was selected as sergeant-at-arms, and Tom Meenach was yell leader.

The Boys' Federation, headed by Van Johnston, and the Girls' League, with Margaret Kestler as president, were very active during the semester.

The North Central News, headed by Marjorie Eveland as editor in chief, published some of the best issues since the origin of the paper.

The Tamarack has been made possible through the tircless effort of the members of the Tamarack staff, and particularly Bob Chatterton, head of the circulation department, and John Dullanty, advertising manager. Leonard Pearson was editor in chief.

Scholastic honors were shared by Irina Larsen, Ethel Van Liew and Leonard Pearson. The three had straight A grades through all their years at North Central.

Mrs. Grace D. Leonard presented the senior dramatics class in the class play, "Smilin' Through." The play was double cast with one exception. In the role of old John Carteret, around whom the play revolves, Ed Fetz and Ward Barnes shared bonors.

The Senior Prom, on May 21 at the Garden, was a tremendous success owing to the efforts of the Prom committee.

Graduation of our class will deprive many of the athletic teams of valuable members. Feotball players that the team will miss next fall are: Wendell Feldhahn, Hal Goudge, Van Johnston, George Mighri, Wayne Miller, Al Schriener, Bob Smith and Fred Wolfe. Basketball team members who have played their last game for North Central are: John Harvey, Tom Meenach, George Ray, Bob Smith and Fred Wolfe.

In closing, we can only say that our last year at North Central has been most enjoyable. We hope that we, as a class, have left something at North Central that will make your senior year as pleasant as ours has been.

It's up to you now, senior B's!

BOYS' FEDERATION

In 1918, the Boys' Federation was organized by L. C. Bradford to promote extra-curricular activities among the boys of the school. The executive council composed of the adviser, officers, department heads and representatives of school activites handles the business of the Federation.

Federation activities are divided into four departments. John Devlin is head of the school service group. His committees include: Fire squad, traffic squad, locker squad, rooting and alumni.

The personal service department is headed by Bill Byers. Fellowship, freshmen, scholarship and senior counselors are the main committees.

Under the leadership of Wright Dearborn the vocational department obtains speakers, arranges convocations and promotes vocational interest among the boys.

George Juckson is head of the community service group. Committees of this department are: Grammar school relations, civic affairs, philanthropy and outside entertainment.

The Boys' Federation conducts its elections according to civic procedure, Effort is made to produce socially-minded young men trained for leadership and citizenship.

GIRLS' LEAGUE

Observance of the Girls' League motto, "Honor, Service, Loyalty," creates a true regard for the highest interests of the school, the community and the nation.

Every girl in North Central is a member of the Girls' Leagne, which was organized in 1918 by Miss Jessie Gibson, who is now Dean of Women at Pomona college.

Business of the League is transacted by the Central council, which includes in its membership the adviser, the officers, the department heads, the floor chairmen and the committee chairmen.

League activities are divided into seven departments. The social service department is headed by Jane Herrington with Mrs. Hermine

RHO KAPPA

To promote an interest in radio the Radio club was organized in 1921. Recently the name Rho Kappa has been instituted in the place of the former title, Radio club, since social activities began to play an important part in club work.

KFIO was originated by the old Radio club and for years the station presented programs with the students as the performers. Then, the station was low powered and inefficient, Members of the club who had studied the theory of radio were the operators. When North Central's broadcasting station was required to meet higher standards or go off the air, the

STUDENT CONDUCT BOARD

Governing the conduct of the students in the halls, the library and during convocation, is the duty of the Student Conduct board. The seven members of the board are appointed by the presidents of the Girls' League, the Boys' Federation and the Associated Student councils at its first meeting.

Any offender of the school rules who wishes to appeal his case is tried by the board at the weekly meeting, Monday morning. If cases are not appealed, offenders are sentenced automatically for failure to appear.

Charles A. Chandler is in general charge of the work of the board,

Larry Metler will leave his riding boots to anyone else who wants to borrow them.

Leonard Pearson unselfishly leaves his English accent to Mrs. Leonard for her use in the next senior dramatics class.

Roy Lankford leaves his million-dollar smile to Birney Blair.

Hallie McCullough and Lyle Russell leave their ability to make the center halls look like Paris in the spring to Jane Radkey and Joe Gregory.

Marjorie Sanders wills her interest in the U.S. may to Beverly Putman.

Ray Scott leaves his "John Alden" instinct to Roger Rice.

Marian Rice leaves her habit of rolling her eyes at least once before every gesture or action to Cleo Botts.

"Mike" Smith will leave his likeness to the "morning milk" to the next person who is carried up to his doorstep and thereon deposited.

Angus Snedden will gladly leave his ability to get at least two "shiners" a week to rising young boxers.

Bill Somers bequeathes his book on "How to Croon" to all other Bing Crosby admirers.

Olive Stocks leaves her permaneut excuse to someone who really needs it.

Tom Starmont leaves his "amber-colored glasses" to Mr. Chandler.

Ed Truscott wills his habit of "running up the curtain" to the surviving "monkey," K. Allen.

C. Olin Rice will undoubtedly receive Dean Vanderwall's last request gratefully. Dean requests that his dislike for modern jazz should rightfully go to Mr. Rice.

Laura Jean Webster leaves her nickname. "kissable," to the members of the uext A. S. C. party.

Alene Jordahl leaves her ability to make her gum look as though it's on a treadmill to Mr. Ramsey.

Bill Wyse leaves his "bashful baby blush" to Alfred Bowles.

Beverly MacDonald will leave her ability to do the hula hula to Norma Falkins.

And last, but not least, the entire senior A population leaves to the freshmen, sophomores and juniors the task of getting swimming back into the school.

"Smilin' Through," a delightful story of universal appeal, was presented May 14 and 15 by a double cast of members of the senior dramatics class under the direction of Mrs. Grace Douglas Leonard, It was given against a beautiful setting with a fine attendance both nights

This comedy-drama is the story of the spirit of Moonyeen Clarc, who returned to help two young lovers achieve the happiness she had been thwarted of, fifty years before.

On the eve of her wedding night, she was shot by Jerry Wayne, her rejected suitor, who meant to shoot John Carteret, her husbandto-he.

Down through the years, a hate has existed between the two families.

The boy and girl of the present generation are finally united and find their happiness after a series of spectacular incidents.

Theatre Masque Convocation

Theater Masque gave its annual convocation, entitled "Royal Revelries," June 2, after school. Ed Fetz wrote the script and arranged the music. A melodrama, "The Villain Still Pursued Her," was adapted for use by Tom Hanifen. Grace Donglas Leonard was director and adviser, assisted by Mercedes Warren, the club president. John Luppert was stage manager; Carol Patz and Jeanne Cassels were property managers; Patricia Boyle, business manager; and Alfred Bowles, advertising manager. John Luppert was also master of ceremonies and Ed Fetz and Mercedes Warren were accompanists.

In the story, a half crazed scientist has invented a machine which looks into the future fifty years and gives eternal life. A business magnate hears of it and tries to buy it. In the course of events, the business magnate demands proof of the ability of the machine. After much flurry and talk, the scientist focuses his machine on the court of King Edward VIII, who has been restored to his throne and has taken as his wife, Mrs. Wallis Simpson. The main features follow, as friends of the King and Queen enjoy a gala evening of entertainment by former friends and celebrities.

LEISURE, A PROBLEM

was largely due to improper development of leisure.

Today, the age of machines is bringing about an ever-increasing amount of personal leisure. What will be done with this extra amount of time, forms one of the major social problems. Humanity grows stagnant when energy outlets are curtailed.

The solution is undoubtedly a thoroughgoing program of leisure time activities. Self-betterment through sports, hobbies and study form possibilities. Only initiative is needed to capitalize on the numerous opportunities.

Potentially, leisure is both dangerous and beneficial. Which of these will become dominant depends entirely upon the individual.

Indian basketball squad meets defeat in several battles but plays a hard, fast-moving game throughout the season, bringing much credit to our alma mater.

North Central's basketball team finished fourth in the city prep league but the squad experienced much hard luck throughout the entire season. Coach J. Wesley Taylor's quintet dropped three games during the city series by one point or one field goal. The graduation in mid-season of three first stringers, Archie Rehn, Clarence Howard and Ray Forrester made it necessary for Coach Taylor to recruit three new players.

Of the thirteen pre-season games the team played, the Indians either won or lost seven of these by one or two points.

Pre-Season Games

With only two or three days of practice under their belts, the Indians journeyed to West Valley and dropped a thriller to the Eagles 31 to 30. As the Valley team was one of the entrants in the State meet, this close score should speak well of the Warrior hoopers.

The Red basketeers began their barnstorming trips by downing Cashmere 15 to 14 in a close, hard-fought tussle. The following evening the Warriors gained revenge that last year's team was unable to obtain. The Chelan Goats had defeated North Central hoopsters for two years straight previous to this year's game, but the Indians came through this time and downed their opponents 32 to 17.

Odessa proved too much for the travelers and won a close 16 to 15 decision by scoring six points in the last three minutes.

During the Christmas vacation, the team journeyed across the state line three times. The first time, Bonners Ferry played host and won the game 27 to 25. Following this, the Indians took the measure of Priest River 25 to 24 in another thriller. The last visit into Idaho netted the Warriors another victory, this time over Coeur d'Alene by a 22 to 13 margin. The Reds also downed Harrington 23 to 22, and with Forrester absent from the lineup lost a 27 to 19 battle to Chewelah to end the barnstorming era.

The visitors for the first home game of the Indians were the Post Falls team and the hosts won 40 to 16.

The last three games that the Indians played other than the city series tilts saw the Reds win one and drop two. West Valley came to the Warrior gym and defeated the local five 31 to 15. North Central journeyed to Central Valley and lost a 28 to 21 contest but evened the score by downing the Valleyites 31 to 29 in a return match at North Central.

For the entire pre-season games, the Indans secred 308 points to their opponent's 295.

THE ROGERS AND GONZAGA SERIES

The Rogers Pirates divided the four game series with the Reds when each team won two games on their own floors. Rogers won the two tilts on their floor by 27 to 16 and 27 to 19 scores. The Indians won the other two by 26 to 24 and 26 to 20 margins.

North Central was unable to win any games from Gonzaga but lost two of these by a margin of one and two points. Gonzaga won the first tilt 26 to 25, the second 29 to 27 in an overtime, and the last two 27 to 15 and 32 to 25.

LEWIS AND CLARK SERIES

In the four game series against the championship Lewis and Clark five, the Indiaus were unable to win a single game although two were very close.

Losing only to Rogers, Coach Guy Barnes' track squad has made a 1937 record comparable to the 1936 championship standing.

Taking the runner-up position in both the city track series and the city meet, the North Central trackmen completed the season with three victories plus two defeats, both at the bands of the Roger Pirales. The first loss was by a narrow margin of three points, and the second, the city nicet, was by a twenty point advantage.

Rogers Meet

In the first city track meet of the year, Rogers defeated the North Central squad by a stim margin of 53-1-3 to 50-2-3. The meet which was hald on the Pirate track was close from start to finish with neither team ahead by more than five points at any one time.

When all events except the broad jump and relay had been run off, it was found that if North Central was able to take a second place in the broad jump, and win the relay, the meet would be North Central's. The broad jumpers, Bill Zimmerman and Marvin Robertson, who were left in the finals to represent the Indian team, tried their hardest but were unable to take a place. Bill Zimmerman was just three inches from taking second place in his final jump because the first, second and third place in the event were so close together. The relay team composed of Bob McGallion. Doug Morrison, Duane Corkrum and Paul Mc-Kinney went ahead in the final event of the day and defeated the Pirate four by a margin of four yards.

Weakness in both the high and broad jump caused the downfall of the determined Indian aggregation. Paul McKinney led his team with individual points by scoring 10-1-3 points. He won first in the 100-yard dash, tied for first in the 220-yard dash, tied for second in the pole yault and ran on the winning relay team.

Bill Zimmerman was close behind with 10 points by winning both the hurdle events.

GONZAGA MEET

North Central, host to Gonzaga's track squad in a meet on the following Friday after the Regers tussle, were none too lenient with their opponents but administered one of the worst lacings ever handed out in a high school track meet. The final score was North Central 85 3-5, Gonzaga 18 2-5.

The Indians, attempting to gain revenge for the Pirate licking, swept six events: The pole vault, the 100-yard dash, both lurdle events, the shot put and the broad jump.

Paul McKinney led has team with a total score of 16 ¼ points by winning first in the 10le vault, in the 10le-yard dash, in the 22le-yard dash and by running anchor man on the winning relay team. Bill Zimmerman was close behind with 15 counters by garnering first in the broad jump and in both the low and high hurdles. In the lows, Zimmerman set a new city record of 24.9 seconds.

LEWIS AND CLARK MEET

In the third and final dual meet of the city series, North Central decisively defeated the Tiger track men by a 74% to 28¼ score in a contest held on the Lewis and Clark field,

Although the Indians swept only one event, the 880-yard run, they piled up enough places in the other events to win handily.

While winning the meet, two records were broken by the Indians, In the 200-yard low hurdles, Bill Zimmerman bettered the record that he set against Gonzaga by four-tenths of a second. He rau the entire distance in 24.5 seconds. To top the day off right, the Indian relay team composed of Bob McGallian, Doug Morrison, Duane Corkrum and Paul McKinney defeated the record set in 1931 by four former North Central men, Remer, Bilow, Sherman and Angle.

High point honors of the meet went to Bill Zimmerman with a total of 15 points. He took three firsts in the high and low hurdles both, and the broad jump. Captain Paul McKinney was second high scorer with a total of 91/4 points by winning first in the 100-yard dash, second in the 220, and ran on the winning relay team.

CITY MEET

Entering the city meet with every intention of avenging the early defeat handed out by the Rogers aggregation, North Central's cinder artists failed to come out on top and again were forced to be content with second place behind the Pirates, Rogers amassed a total of  $603_4$  points, the Redia, 39, Gonzaga's Bullpups 17 and Lewis and Clark 14½.

The meet which was held for the specific purpose of sending the first place winners to the State meet at Pullman, May 22, was run off on Hart field on a very windy day that made running very difficult, and was the cause for only one record falling during the day. The 200-yard low hurdles which Eugene Wirseh of Rogers ran in the remarkable time of 22.2 seconds to cut the record formerly held by Bill Zinnmerman down two and three-tenths of a second.

Two events, the 120-yard high hurdles, and the 440-yard run provided the fans with the most exciting races of the day, both ending in dead heats. In the hurdles, Frank Aikens of Rogers and Bill Zimmerman of the Reds finished in such a close race that the finish judges, who differed in opinion decided to eall it a tic. The 440-yard run which is perhaps the hardest race of all ended in another deadlock between Bob McGallian of North Central and Ira Glass of the Pirates. Me-Gallian, who closed a gap of two yards in a last burst of speed, to finish on a par with Glass, had placed first in this event in every meet this season, as had Zimmerman in the high sticks,

High point honors of the meet went to Bill Zimmerman with ten points as a result of a tie for first in the high hurdles, second place in the low hurdles and second in the broad jump. He was closely followed by Paul McKinney, captain of the Indian track squad who totalled 9 ½ points. He placed first in the 100-yard dash, second in the 220-yard dash and ran anchor man on the winning relay team. Wirseli of Rogers was in third place with 9 points. He won the low hurdles, took second in the 100-yard dash, and fourth in the broad jump.

North Central entrants in the State meet at Pullman were: Bill Zinnierman, Paul McKinney, Bob McGallian, Duane Corkrum, Doug Morrison and Charles Moore. Moore was selected by all of the track coaches to go as one of the extra men.

first three quarters in the first clash against the two rivals but were unable to hold the lead and dropped the contest by a 20 to 15 margin.

In the second game, the Tigers experienced a narrow escape and won the game by stopping a determined rally of the North Siders two points short of a victory. The final score of the battle was 24 to 22 in favor of the South Side five.

The third battle was waged on the North Central floor, but the local team couldn't come through and lost 23 to 16. The last game of the season that these two teams played against each other turned out to be a free seoring affair with the Tigers winning 39 to 20.

Although Coach Archie Buckley has been hampered by a lack of returning lettermen, the 1937 baseball team has been victorious in a healthy percentage of the games played.

Opening 1937 baseball practice, Coach Archie Buckley found his squad minus every regular of the 1936 city championship nine. All the veterans had graduated or left school and only two lettermen remained. Elwood Carter, center fielder, and Louis DeVoe, pitcher, formed the nucleus of the Red nine.

Coach Buckley started things going by forming an eight team intra-mural ball tournament from which the regular squad was chosen after the completion of tourney play. Mr. Barnard's team, captained by Elwood Carter, went undefeated and copped the school champienship. The Barnard nine then clashed with the faculty all-stars and went down to a close 3-1 defeat.

After the Bainard-Faculty game, regular practice got under way Players that survived the final cut to form the Indian squad were: Perry Hastings, Elwood Carter, Louis DeVoe, Art Corbett, Tod Sloan, Hal Goudge, Vern Bergen, Fred Wolfe, John Harvey, Gordon Bennion, Paul Lee, Ellis Conboy, Gene Le-Grant, Billy Hughes, Sherrill Pradella, Frank Lucas, Sammy Contos, Bob Carr, Denny Williams and Carlton DeZecuw.

GONZAGA 9, NORTH CENTRAL 5

North Central's Warrior nine entertained the Gonzaga Bullpups here on April 20 for the Red's initial fray. The Indians dropped their opener 9-5, but in spite of the four run difference, the game was close for six of the seven innings. The lead changed three times and at the beginning of the final inning, the core stood at 6-5 in favor of the Zags. In the first of the seventh, the Bullpups staged a three run rally to put the game on ice, The Warriors were retired in their last bats and the game ended at 9-5 in favor of the Pups.

Perry Hastings, Red catcher, slammed a homer over the right field fence in the third frame.

NORTH CENTRAL 6, WEST VALLEY 5

Journeying out to West Valley on Tuesday, April 27, the Redskins rang up a victory at the expense of the West Valley Eagles. The battle was close and hard-fought all the way with a final score of 6-5 favoring the Warriors. A desperate seventh inning rally by the Eagles almost brought them victory. Going into the seventh for their last bats, the Eagles were trailing 6-2. They ran three men across home plate in a short time and had a man on third when Tod Sloan began to bear down and retire their side. Sloan and DeVoe hurled the Reds to victory while DeZeeuw held honors for heavy stick work with a triple and a double in four attempts.

LEWIS AND CLARK 5, NORTH CENTRAL 4

Tangling with the Tigers April 30, at Hart field, the Reds came out on the short end of a 5-4 overtime battle. The Tigers slipped one run across in their last bats of the extra eighth inning to break a 4-4 deadlock. At the end of the first frame the tally stood at 1-1. The Tigers scored again in the third, fourth and fifth innings to put them ahead 4-1. The Reds brought in two in the fifth and one in the sixth to tie the game at 4-4. Neither team scored in the seventh and in the eighth, Perry, Tiger first-sacker, stole bome for the winning run. Contos and Hastings hit triples for the

ROGERS 4, NORTH CENTRAL 3

Losing a second overtime tilt, was the fate of the Warriors as they dropped a close 4-3 decision to the Pirates on their diamond, Tuesday, May 4. Hardy, Bue hurler, kept the Reds fairly well tamed by whiffing 16 of them in the eight innings. The Reds were trailing 3-2 in the sixth frame, and with two away, Vern Bergeo, Indian shortstop, poled out a homer to tie the tally at 3-3. Neither nine could score in the seventh and in the eighth, Miller singled to score lines from third to make the score 4-3.

NORTH CENTRAL 12, GONZAGA 2

Displaying a powerful hatting array coupled with tight pitching and fielding, the Warriors knocked the Gonzaga Bullpups off their first place perch with a decisive 12-2 drnbbing on the Redskin diamond May 12.

The victory enabled the Reds to jump back in the city series race, for if they had lost they would have been definitely out. Art Corbett, Red hurler, went the route with eight scattered hits. In addition to his hurling victory, Corbett grabbed batting honors by connecting with three out of four for a .750 pct.

North Central bunched four runs in the second frame, four more in the third, three in the fifth and one in the sixth. Captain Elwood Carter hit one over the fence for the last Indian score in the last of the sixth inning. Gonzaga rallied their two rnns in the last of the seventh frame. Vern Bergen hit .667 and Billy Hughes .400 to help the scoring along.

NORTH CENTRAL 4, WEST VALLEY 3

West Valley's Eagles traveled to North Ceutral May 18 for the longest and most thrilling game played in the city series competition during the season. At the end of the seventh and last inning, the tally was deadlocked at 3-3. In their last bats of the 10th frame, the Reds pushed across the victory score to take the long battle 4-3.

Strikeouts featured the tilt with 33 of them heing registered, 16 by Tod Sloan of the Reds and 17 by Lewis of the Eagles. Sammy Contos was the slugging king of the day with a homer and a double that drove in three of the four Indian scores. Pradella was right behind Contos in stick honors with four hits out of six attempts for a .667 pct. Pradella singled in the last of the tenth to drive in DeZeeuw the winning run.

Pitcher Sloan got three hits out of five attempts to garner a .600 pct. Billy Hughes with .400 and Carlton DeZeeuw with .500 played important roles in the overtime victory. This made the first extra inning battle that the Reds came out victorious in for previously they had dropped extra inning tilts to Rogers and Lewis and Clark.

Lewis and Clark 2, North Central 0 John Leland, star Tiger hurler, entered baseball's hall of fame with a no hit no run victory over the Redskin nine, Thursday, May 20 on the Indian diamond.

Leland fanned 12 Warriors as his Tiger team mates pushed over one tally in the second frame and another in the third to win 2-0. Errors in the second and third innings by Pradella and Contos helped the Cats to gain their two victory scores.

The Tiger victory pushed the Reds out of the city series running and with Rogers dropping a 6-4 tilt to West Valley, the Tigers had only Gonzaga to fight it out with for the 1937 pennant. Elwood Carter, Red captain, nearly ruined Leland's perfect record in the last inning. With two outs on the Braves, Carter came to bat and with two strikes on him banged out a "Pexas Leaguer" that was just a couple of feet short of a hit.

Art Corbett issued only four hits and struck out 10 Tigers, but the two errors of his team mates let in the Southsiders' runs.

Girls' Athletics enjoy a wide participation that has been built up through the commendable effort of the physical education department.

PROMINENT SENIOR A GIRLS

For each sport a girl goes out for, she receives a number of activity points. Heretofore, the number of points required for a girl to earn an all-activity letter has been 400. Because in this way it was possible to earn a letter by turning a medical examination certificate in every year, Miss Elsa M. Pinkham raised the number of points to 500.

After the first letter has been earned, each additional 500 points is rewarded with a black bar sewed on the shield.

Besides turning out for sports, a girl may earn activity points by working in the gym office during vacant periods, keeping health charts and cheeking in clean gym rompers the first week of every month.

Betty Fritch, Jean Cleave and Laura Jean Webster are senior A's who have made themselves outstanding in the dancing division of the P. E. department.

Three sepior A girls earned enough points for their letters and four additional bars, although three bars are the maximum number awarded. Ethel Van Liew, Ellen Freed and Margaret Kestler each had a total number of 2100 points during their four years at North Central.

Marie Jones was very active on the tennis team, ranking first for the last two semesters of her high school career. She earned her allactivity shield, tennis letter and two black stars.

Victoria Wilson earned 800 all-activity points for her interest and participation in all sports, and was awarded her acitivity letter and an additional black bar.

Lucille Blake and Barbara Shepard won their letters and stars for tennis besides earning their all-activity shields.

Mary DeVoe or "Little Nell," general favorite around the gyni department, earned her activity letter and tennis letter. During her senior A semester, she was captain of the golf team and president of the Athletic board.

Mary Christic turned out for every intramural sport the school offered all during her four years, and was especially active in hasketball.

Audrene Gregory was on the tennis team for three years and earned her letter and two stars, For her participation in other sports, she was presented her all-activity award.

PLAYFIELD DECENNIAL

Celebrating the tenth anniversary of the North Central playfield on May 26, 100 girls under the direction of Miss Elsa Pinkham, executed the most colorful and intricate pageant in the history of the school. Climaxing the display was the crowning of the May queen, a senior A girl.

Twenty of the school's most attractive girls were chosen to make up the queen's court, fourteen of which were graduating seniors. Betty Fritch, prominent graduate, crowned the queen.

Included in the program were five ballets, each with different girls participating. Costumes for each ballet were of a different color, lending a beautiful effect of harmonious shades.

Miss Agnes Avent directed the making of all costumes worn in the pageant, and Miss Couah Mae Ellis had charge of the girls in the court, Practices and sewing for the event started early in the semester, and continued until the time when the performance was given.

In charge of the Blue Ballet, composed of 20 dancers, were Marjorie Peterson and Mary Walsh. Cleo Gale and Charlotte Starmont were managers of the Orange and Yellow Ballet, while Ione and Leona Mottaz had charge of the Lavendar dresses. In the White Ballet were only 9 girls, directed by Betty Fritch and Gloria Sherwood.

For contrasting color and hilarious effect, Ethel Van Liew, Ellen Freed and Margaret Kestler, dressed in bright green grotesque costumes, were court jesters. Ethel Van Liew was in charge of the group.

Dances were accompanied by the North Central band which played the "Jolly Fellows' Waltz." Betty Fritch was general chairman assisted by Mary Mathews.

GIRLS' TENNIS

Under the direction of Miss Elsa M. Pinkham, the girls' tennis team chalked up another victorious season this spring.

Winning all but one match from Rogers, the squad opened the season confidently on May 3.

With Marie Jones ranking in first position, the team met West Valley on the courts of both schools on May 13.

The big match with Lewis and Clark came on May 20 to finish the city tournament for North Central.

Seven girls went to Coeur d' Alene on May 14 where they played with girls from the Coeur d' Alene high school.

Thirteen of the graduating seniors carned their letters: Lucille Blake, Ellen Freed (captain), Audrene Gregory, Marie Jones, Margaret Kestler, Carol Kinney, Barbara Shepard, Hester Shriver, Lucille Shupe, Olive Stocks, Ethel Van Liew, Laura Webster and Victoria Wilson.

Stars given as year awards were earned by: Lucille Blake, Audrene Gregory, Barbara Shepard and Victoria Wilson. Marie Jones won two black stars, and Ellen Freed two black stars and the white captain's star.

Irene Albright was chosen captain of the fall '37 season.

"Really, Mr. Hix, we didn't have a table last period."

Recreation hour was an out and out success this year everyone agreed. More students turned out in the cafe on Monday afternoons this spring than have ever come to the hour before.

Miss Conah Mae Ellis and Ernest L. Hix were very kind to help as faculty advisers with the hour, and Jackie Feltman and Richard Borton shouldered most of the work as student assistants.

Jean Shaw and Richard Borton won the girls' and boys' singles ping pong tournament, respectively. Ping pong proved to be the most popular of all indoor games, which shows that most students probably like to use brawn rather than hrain outside of school hours.

However, checkers and anagrams ran a very close second to the more active game, providing entertainment for everyone.

A great many new games were added to the hour this spring, and were all greatly appreciated by the students.

VOLLEYBALL

Cheering at the last N. C.-L. C. Thanks-giving game was a tea party in comparison to the big gym when almost 100 girls released pent-up vitality all at once during volleyball practice early this spring.

As they rightfully should, the senior team, or Invincible Seniors with Marie Jones as captain, screamed hysterically off with all the honors of the tournament.

Narrowly snatching the crown from an ambitious junior team, the seniors proudly retained their supremacy in another sport,

Two very prominent senior girls, Mary Christie and Lucille Blake, were manager and chairman, respectively, of the volleyball activities

Senior A's on the victorious team were: Marie Jones, captain; Lucille Blake, Mary Christie, Dorothy Lambert, Margaret Medcalf, Lucille Poole, Hester Shriver, Louise Swan, Ellen Freed, Ethel Van Liew, Victoria Wilson and Margaret Kestler.

All girls who turned out were given makeups in gym and all-activity points.

BOYS' DANCING

"Whew, wotta mess! Oh-oh! There I walked on her feet again. Gee, how some guys get fun ontta strugglin' around like this is beyond me."

Boys who felt like this at their first dancing lesson soon changed their mind as classes pro-

Paye se harred three ceeded under the able direction of Miss Elsa M. Pinkham.

About 150 boys learned to dance in six lessons given after school on Fridays in the big gym. Ballroom ctiquette was also taught. Girls who came to assist were given activity points and gym makeups.

Miss Helen H. Dundee played the piano. Student assistant was Jean Travis. Much of the outstanding success of the school dances was attributed to the lessons given the boys.

TENNIQUOITS

With tresses flying and skirts clutched wildly, fifty girls fought out a grim tenniquoit tournament in the big gym, mornings before school.

Regardless of battered fingernails and diskeveled appearance, senior A girls again showed their prowess by scunpering off with both singles and doubles tournament trophies.

Marie Jones, far-famed tennis star, defeated Margaret Kestler in the finals placing herself tops on the ladder.

However, Margaret and Ethel Van Liew proved in the doubles that their last year's title was no mistake.

Because tenniquoits, or deek tennis, is a game similar to regular tennis, many members of the tennis team participated. In this way, many girls who had make-ups to clear up for gym could do their work before school.

Victoria Wilson, senior A, and Molly Flynn did excellent work as chairman and manager of the tournament, respectively.

GIRLS TRACK

With the aid of Guy O. Barnes and boys from the gym department, Miss Elsa M. Pink-Lam and Miss Catherine Dittebrandt ran off the annual girls' track meet in the early part of May on the playfield.

Girls competed in dashes ranging from 50 yards to 440 yards, in basketball and baseball throws, shot put, javelin, high and broad jumping and relays.

Many outstanding senior A girls were active in the event. Laura Jean Webster and Margaret Dodds, graduates, were student chairmen.

SKATING

Many North Central students learned figure skating at the Spokane Ice Arena last winter, due to the efforts of Miss Elsa Pinkhain, Miss Pauline Everett, Miss Mary Sidney Mitchell and Gloria Sherwood. The instructors, all excellent skaters, donated their time to any student who wished help on Wednesday afternoons.

Although the season was somewhat broken up because of extremely low temperatures, a few students attended North Central day at the Arena almost every Wednesday from 2:30 until 5:00 p. m.

Students who had the sixth period vacant were permitted to leave school early to go skating.

P. E. DEPARTMENT

Of all the departments in the school, the P. E., or Personal Efficiency, department is the largest. In this group are about 400 girls who are interested in school activities, especially athletics.

Jeanette Whiteside and Irene Albright are head and assistant head of the department, replacing Margaret Kestler and Ellen Freed.

Assistants in the department are Betty Neilans, Lucille Blake, Victoria Wilson, Carol Patz, Helen Peterson, Marjorie Hayes, Agnes Honshell and Jerry Moody.

OUTING CLUB

Under the direction of Miss Catherine Dittebrandt, 55 girls learned valuable camperaft habits on hikes this spring.

Two outstanding outings were at the Boulder Beach and the Bowl and Pitcher. Miss Dittebrandt taught the girls to build fires and cook over them and how to put out the fire so that there is no danger of damage being caused.

Points were given to each girl for each outing. Outings were on Saturday mornings. Grace Kirkpatrick was the manager.

GIRLS' GOLF

An interscholastic golf team was organized this spring. Matches were played with Lewis and Clark.

During the season, instructions were taken from Bill Mader at the downriver course, and the girls were urged to play at every opportunity.

On Saturday mornings the girls played tournaments among themselves. Mary DeVoe was the captain of the team.
